

Christian principles will be taught throughout the week during chapels and regular training. Working with horses is a wonderful picture of the Lord working in our lives.

CAMP FEES:

(Fees include the discount for cash or check)-$390-$460

Includes camp T-shirt, use of horse and tack, and all instruction. Those wishing to board their horse for the week can provide their own feed ($50 grounds fee) or use the ranch's feed and pay a boarding fee of $85. Each person must provide personal riding gear. This camp is hands-on and practical. Students will ride each day. Riders may want to bring their own horses and equipment for more thorough training (please notify us on the second page).

RESERVATIONS: Send your completed reservation form with full payment or $150 non-refundable deposit payable to TWQC at 213 Bridwell Way, Travelers Rest SC 29690. Visa credit cards accepted.

Reservation is confirmed with full payment and waiver, which will be emailed to you, has been signed, returned, and received.

Class sizes are limited, so enroll early.

Curt & Bev Doherty

864-430-9526 (cell)

e-mail: info@twqc.org

Parents are encouraged to attend the Gymkhana on Saturday, June 22 (games, competitions & awards)

Montana Cowgirl Bev Doherty

Bev was a top hand and head wrangler on her dad's Montana cattle ranch, the TW Quarter Circle.

Credentials: Handled own horse on first cattle drive age three; began breaking and training horses at age 11 under trainer Glenn Montie; received numerous awards in horse shows during high school and college; broke and trained winners in high school and college Nationals and pro rodeo circuit. 4-H clubber and leader for 11 years.

B. Sci. from Montana State University in secondary education with a major in physical education; training and experience in special education. 33 yrs. as a Christian school teacher and competitive sports coach.

Camp Director Marietta Parrott

Credentials:

TWQC Ranch Ministries
Apprenticeship 5 year certificate in Natural Horsemanship, Bible, and Biblical discipleship
TWQC Proficiencies: 2-4D
NBHA & GTBRA Barrel Racing
NBHA WORLD
CHAMPIONSHIP qualifier 5
yrs. Finals qualifier

TWQC Ranch Ministries- Ranch Manager 10 years
Involved in personal evangelism and discipleship through The Exchange individual Bible studies
Professional Farrier, specializing in hoof rehabilitation
Championships in Ranch Riding, Western Pleasure,
English on the Flat, Horsemanship, Showmanship,
and Speed Events
Experience as a 4H judge
Volunteer since elementary school at Faith Baptist Church of Taylors Children's Church Program
Working on BS in Equine Studies from Post
University, NH

TW Quarter Circle Ranch Ministries HORSEMANSHIP CAMP

1447 Jones Mill Road
Fountain Inn SC 29644

Beginners through Advanced Kids and Adults

For information:
Contact Curt or Bev Doherty
864-430-9526 (cell)
info@twqc.org

TW QUARTER CIRCLE
RANCH MINISTRIES
WESTERN HORSEMANSHIP CAMP

Wrangler Weeks (Limited: by invitation only)

May 27–July 20 (varies 1-10 pm).

No Wednesday session.

Training for Wranglers/Counselors $460

Wranglers & Ranch Hands serve thru July 20

Week 1 Barrel Camp - June 3-8—(4-9 pm)

No Wednesday session.

GTBRA Barrel Race @ Clemson; 1 exhibition included; Regular runs optional (rider pays)

Intermediate to Advanced $460

Week 2 Speciality Camp-TBA—

June 11, 13, 14 (5-9 pm)

No Monday or Wednesday session.

Competition held June 14

Beginner to Advanced $240

Week 3 Horsemanship Camp—

June 17-21 (4-9 pm)

No Wednesday session.

TWQC Show held Saturday, June 22 (9 am-2pm)

Beginner to Advanced $390

Week 4 Working Cow Camp—

June 24-28 (4-9pm)

No Wednesday session; ends on Friday

Intermediate to Advanced $400

Dress & Supplies Guidelines:

Proper riding boots mandatory. Riding helmets required for campers under 18.

Helmets available for rental or purchase at camp. Western attire is encouraged

Insect repellent Hat

Water bottle Sun screen

Snacks/lunch

KJV Bible (Bibles for loan if needed)

Modest jeans & sleeved tops

Some of the horsemanship skills taught during camp (based on level):

The “Western Experience”

DVDs on specialty skills/safety

Care and safety of tack, horse, rider

Parts of the horse and tack

Gaining respect from your horse

Haltering, saddling, bridling

Hooves: Picking up feet/cleaning

Grooming: Basics, safety, equipment

Mounting/dismounting

Basics of sitting the seat in all gaits

Basics of leads: Identifying/executing

Side stepping (if horses are so trained)

Emergency dismounts

Handling an out-of-control horse

Showmanship & judging techniques

Trail class

Roping/Barrel racing/Pole bending

Problem solving

Teamwork

Working cattle

Ranch riding

Farrier Work

All camp sessions will draw from skills listed, and final schedule will reflect needs of campers pre-registered.

HORSEMANSHIP CAMP
RESERVATION FORM 2024
Please type or print (use blue or black ink only)

Mr/Mrs/Miss _____

_____ Last

_____ First

_____ Home Address

_____ City

_____ State

_____ Zip

_____ DOB e-mail (print clearly) Cell #

T-Shirt size: Youth or Adult (circle one)

S / M / L / XL / XXL (circle one)

_____ (initial) I will be bringing my own horse, saddle, and equipment. Coggins required.

_____ (initial) I will be bringing my own saddle and equipment (TWQC approved), but not a horse.

_____ (initial) I will need to buy a riding helmet from the TW Quarter Circle

_____ (initial) I will need to rent a riding helmet from the ranch. ($15/week)

[circle appropriate week(s)]

*Wrangler Weeks (limited by invitation only)
May 27–July 20

*Week 1 Barrel Camp: June 3-8
(Barrel Race-June 8)

*Week 2: Speciality Camp June 11, 13, 14

*Week 3: June 17-21 TWQC Show
(Show/Gymkhana June 22)

*Week 4: Working Cow Camp June 24-28